When the criminal enclosure is full, a criminal lunatic may be temporarily lodged outside the enclosure.

be the property of the licensee and may be disposed of as he pleases.

12. (a) If any licensee or his servants or agents employed by him in the supervision or management of any work for which he holds a licence shall be convicted of any breach of these rules or

(b) if any servant or agent employed by any such licensee in his business carried on at such work though not in the supervision or management thereof, shall be convicted of any breach of these rules under the circumstances leading to the belief that the act or the illegal omission of which he was convicted was done with the privity and consent of such licensee or

(c) if any licensee or any servant or agent employed by such licensee in the business carried on by him under his licence refuse or without reasonable excuse neglect to produce such licence or to show the boilers, filters and other plant for inspection or measurement when called on by any officer authorized to inspect the same.

Such licensee shall be liable to have his licence suspended or cancelled by order of the Assistant Commissioner of the division.

Provided always that if in any case falling under clause (c) of this rule, the Assistant Commissioner be of opinion that the penalty of suspension or cancelment of a licence will be unduly heavy with reference to the nature of the case or to the means of the licensee, it shall be lawful for the Assistant Commissioner, instead of suspending or cancelling such licence, to offer the holder thereof the option of paying such fine as the Assistant Commissioner may consider equitable not exceeding the sum of Rs. 5. Fines so imposed shall be paid within ten days from the date of the order imposing them failing which the order of suspension or cancelment of the licence shall be and remain of full effect in the same way as if no option of the payment of a fine had been offered. There shall be no appeal against the adjudication of an optional fine under this rule. An appeal may be preferred against the amount of such fine provided that the fine had been previously paid.

13. If any licensee under these rules shall be charged with any breach of them, the Assistant Inspector or the Inspector as the case may be may order the suspension of his licence pending the result of such enquiry into such charge.

14. Except as otherwise provided, all orders passed and proceedings taken under these rules by officers subordinate to the Collector shall be subject to appeal to their respective immediate superiors within two months from the date of such orders or proceedings. The decision of the Collector on any such appeal shall be final.

15. The Collector may make such subsidiary rules and impose any further conditions as he may deem necessary for the protection of the revenue. He reserves to himself the power of altering these rules at any time.

16. These rules will take effect from 1st January 1927.

Cultivation Statement—October 1926—Review.

(On an average of the five years ending 1925-26 the area sown from April to October represents 71 per cent on dry lands and 72 per cent on wet lands.)

General—There was a fair amount of rainfall in almost all districts during the first half of October 1926. The weather was dry in the Circars and the Deccan during the latter half of the month and the rainfall during the period was generally poor except in the south and on the west Coast and in parts of the Carnatic. On the whole, the rainfall during the month was up to or above the average only in Madura, Ramnad and South Kanara and was inadequate in most of the remaining districts. Water-supply was generally sufficient except in parts of Vizagapatam, Anantapur, South Arcot, Chittoor, North Arcot, Salem and Ramnad.

Paddy was sown or transplanted in Ganjam, Vizagapatam, the Carnatic, the central districts, the south and the west Coast, ragi and cumbu in Coimbatore and Madura, cholam in East and West Godavari, Kistna, Kurnool, Bellary, Coimbatore and Madura and chillies in parts of the Circars, pulses were sown in East and West Godavari, Guntur, Kurnool, Anantapur, the central districts and Madura and cotton in Bellary, Coimbatore and Madura.

2. April to October 1926—Sowings—Dry—The area sown from April to October exceeds the average and last year's figures by 7 and 2 per cent respectively. The increase over the average was mainly in Bellary, Anantapur, Salem and Coimbatore.

Wet.—The total area sown from April to October exceeded the average and last year's figures by 7 and 1 per cent respectively. The increase over the average was mainly in West Godavari and Kistna.
